

CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS is part of NAF's APPROVED THIRD PARTY COURSES for NAFTrack

Cambridge is accepted at the postsecondary level by universities and colleges around the world, including in more than 550 US universities. These courses and assessments will, for the first time, allow students to earn college credit and advanced placement in courses directly linked to NAF academy themes.

Six advanced Cambridge courses are now part of NAFTrack Certification

- A and AS Level Design and Technology
- A and AS Level Accounting
- A and AS Level Business
- A and AS Level Economics
- A and AS Level Food Studies
- A and AS Level Travel and Tourism

"We have been impressed by the depth and breadth of knowledge exhibited by Cambridge students. They arrive on campus well-prepared and excited about learning, regardless of where they come from in the world."

*Greg Roberts
Dean of Admissions, University of Virginia*

Assessment Procedure Required for NAFTrack Certification

A final course grade of C or above is required. To enter course information into NAFTrack Certification, see pages 28-38 in the manual.

Costs

Academies are directly responsible for any Cambridge course costs.

Questions?

Email NAFTrackCertification@naf.org

ABOUT CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS

The Cambridge program, for students in grades K-12, promotes a personalized and academically rigorous education system that emphasizes critical-thinking skills and inquiry-based learning with a strong focus on student creativity and engagement. Cambridge is a part of Cambridge Assessment, a department of the University of Cambridge.

 /cie.org.uk

 @CIE_Education